

Benjamin Craig

Senior Advisor

Experience

Ben has spent the past 10 years of his career in the capital markets, principally working for American exchanges. Previously a principal/founder of Swap-Ex, a startup commodity swaps trading platform, he has worked in corporate development and strategic planning roles that involved equity and derivatives exchanges, as well as commodity trading platforms and clearinghouses. Prior to Swap-Ex, he served as the President of the NASDAQ OMX Futures Exchange (NFX), as well as Vice President of Strategy & US futures for NASDAQ OMX. During that time, he also served on the subsidiary boards of the International Derivatives Clearing Group, Agora-X, and NFX. Prior to his time at NASDAQ OMX, he served as the First Vice President, Corporate Development, for the Philadelphia Stock Exchange, where, in addition to his corporate development responsibilities, he led government relations for the exchange. Prior to his tenure in the capital markets, he worked in the public sector in a corporate development role in the office of the CFO of Amtrak and in the Mayor's Office of Transportation in the city of Philadelphia.
