

Joyce Liu

Analyst

Joyce Liu is an analyst at Econsult Solutions, Inc. (ESI). Joyce was a Research Assistant with ESI before joining the firm full-time as an analyst. She provides expertise in geospatial analysis and research literature. She also has programming and design experience in ArcGIS, SQL, HTML, R Studio and JavaScript for statistical analysis and multimedia design.

Experience

Prior to joining ESI, Joyce Liu, worked at Agritecure Consulting as a research and design intern. She helped develop a digital product by synthesizing user interviews, creating journey maps and catalog features. She also filmed and edited online education materials. Joyce Liu has worked as a research fellow at the Good Food Institute, conducting data auditing for its alternative protein industry knowledge.

Additional Experience

Joyce Liu also served as a volunteer consultant at the Mmanze Center for Rural Development and Training in Uganda, collaborating with field staff to design a sustainable fish farming project and producing a 50-page research report from planning to recommendations on execution
